BE F.I.R.S.T.

Focused on God, Involved in ministry, Respected by peers, Strengthened in faith, and Transformed by Christ

I'm going to begin this article as I usually end: It's a great time to Be F.I.R.S.T.! God is doing such amazing things in our church! Guests are attending, people are joining, lives are changing, and ministries are growing! It amazes me that 59 people have joined our church just since January 1, twelve of those for baptism! At this time, with just two weeks to go in our reporting year, which runs from September 1 to August 31, we are just two additions away from having our third highest year of growth in the last eleven years and just four additions away from having our second highest year of growth! If you're thinking about uniting with our church, why not help us break some records by making that commitment in the next couple of weeks?

As we move into the fall, ministry service and growth opportunities multiply. We have several new Bible study opportunities beginning this Wednesday. I'm excited about a new series I will be teaching through Revelation 4-22. If you're not plugged in somewhere else, I hope you will join us as we navigate this often intimidating but extremely interesting part of scripture.

I have been thrilled with the way God has used the sermon series on Elijah this summer. It has become one of my favorite series. This fall, I am planning three sermon series that I hope will help us grow and be encouraged in the faith. On September 1, we will launch Who's Your One? Through this series, we will join with many other churches in committing to pray for and reach at least one person for Christ. This sermon series is a way of launching our goal for a 200% increase in baptisms in the coming year.

In October, I will begin a series called Light in a Gray World in which we will shed biblical light on some of our cultural challenges. Then in December, I'll begin The Messenger. Some of you remember the dramatic monologue messages I did some years ago where I portrayed Joseph, a scribe, and a magi. This year, I plan to portray the angel who delivered the messages to Mary and Joseph. This will be a unique way for us to see how God has and continues to use His messengers.

You don't want to miss anything happening this fall at First Baptist Pineville. In fact, I'll go ahead and say it again: It's a great time to Be F.I.R.S.T.!

Dr. C. Stewart Holloway, Pastor

CHURCH-WIDE

Dearest FBC Family,

The overwhelming grief that Ed (Pokey) and I have walked through was eased by the love, prayers, and support shown by our church family. Food, cards, texts, calls, visits, etc. have encouraged us. Your actions demonstrated the love of Christ in a tangible way. Thank you. We love you.

Karen and Ed (Pokey) Lafargue

thankful

Dear Stewart and First Family,

There are not enough words to adequately express my surprise and appreciation for the recognition of my retirement from LifeWay Christian Stores. Serving my church through LifeWay was always an added blessing to serving our community. Your words of affirmation and support certainly make transition to retirement easier. I look forward to serving our church in new ways.

In Christ,
Roger Wise

grateful ♥
