HAPPY

Father's

DAY

As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him. Psalm 103:13

BE F.I.R.S.T.

Focused on God, Involvement in ministry, Respected by peers, Strengthened in faith, and Transformed by Christ

God often uses people you've never heard of to do things you'll never forget. That was the case for the prophet Elijah. He was a man from nowhere who God sent to take on the evil king and queen of the land. Last Sunday we began a new series on this Old Testament prophet. He was a man of power and humility.

I'm excited about journeying through Elijah's life this summer. In 24 years of ministry, I've only preached from 1 Kings five times. I've never preached on Elijah. However, I've always been fascinated by Elijah. Commentator P.R. House writes, "Without question Elijah is one of the most distinctive and diversely talented individuals in the Bible. He is a prophet, preacher, political reformer, and miracle worker all at the same time." In some ways, he is untouchable, yet, in so many ways we can identify with him like no one else. Elijah got afraid. Elijah became discouraged, even downright depressed! As House says, "Elijah is no superman."

I rather like that about Elijah because I am no superman and neither are you. However, God still calls us, just as He did Elijah, to live for Him and push back the powers of darkness.

If you have to miss a Sunday due to traveling, remember that we livestream our services on our Facebook page. Comment from where you are so we'll know you're watching! We also have a First Baptist Church Pineville YouTube channel where you can watch the services and messages on demand. So that you can read ahead, upcoming messages are as follows:

- 6/23 - "On the Up and Up for the Down and Out", 1 Kings 17:7-24
- 6/30 - "The Showdown on the Mountain", 1 Kings 18:1-2, 17-40
- 7/7 - "Expect. Wait. Persevere", 1 Kings 18:41-46
- 7/14 - "A Dark Night of the Soul", 1 Kings 19 (We will celebrate the Lord's Supper.)

We're going to have a great time exploring Elijah: Prophet of Power and Humility.

Though we just introduced the Elijah series, we will take a break from it this Sunday for Father's Day. On Sunday, we will focus on giving our dads some encouragement as they strive to be the spiritual leader of their home. Being a spiritual leader is challenging, especially in today's cultural climate. Therefore, I want to inspire our dad's to press on and be victorious. You can do this, dad! Come find out how this Sunday.

I'm so excited about everything that is happening this summer. It all makes me say, it's a great time to Be F.I.R.S.T.!

Congratulations to Becky Cook on her staff anniversary!
We are celebrating 10 years with Becky on July 13!

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for investing in the lives of children and their families through VBS, this past week. We had the privilege of sharing encounters with Jesus throughout the week with 132 children! I am thankful for the 130 volunteers that made this week possible. From all of our volunteers and class leaders, you made it possible for everyone that stepped foot on our campus last week to encounter Jesus in real and tangible ways!

VBS and other activities aren't all about numbers, but one number I am excited about is the four boys and girls that accepted Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior. I know many more seeds were planted, many were watered and then still others deepened their walk with the Lord through their encounters with you, our church family! Thank you for reaching out and making connections and follow up visits with families that are seeking a church home.

Thank you for being F.I.R.S.T. at VBS!

Serving Him,
Kimberly
